

Thursday, February 21, 2019
6:10-8:10 p.m.

Admission is free but registration is required.
RSVP to <https://tinyurl.com/anotesark>

Columbia Law School
Jerome Greene Hall, room 101
435 West 116th Street (at Amsterdam Avenue)
New York, NY 10027
NEAREST SUBWAY: 116th Street stop on #1 line

Film description: Award-winning documentary A Note's Ark tells the story of Pacific Island nation Kiribati's fight against the existential threat of climate change. All of Kiribati's 33 coral isles and atolls will be completely underwater within this century scientists now agree. A Note's Ark follows former president Anote Tong as he works to save his nation, purchasing, for example, 20 km² in Fiji to relocate Kiribati islanders. The award-winning documentary also strikes a personal tone, following Sermay, a young mother of six, as she struggles to resettle her family in New Zealand. A Note's Ark has screened at a number of festivals including the Sundance Film Festival, Hot Docs Festival, and the Human Rights Film Festival here in New York.

Q&A to follow

Michael Gerrard, Faculty Director, Sabin Center for Climate Change Law
Eve Mosher, Environmental Artist, New York City

Moderator

Ama Francis, Climate Law Fellow, Sabin Center for Climate Change Law

Program is sponsored by the Sabin Center for Climate Change Law and the Environmental Law Society